

Delhi Public School, Mathura Road

Presents

MUNQSMUN 2014

We would like to invite your prestigious institution to participate in Delhi Public School Mathura Road's annual Inter School Model UN Conference to be held between 9th October & 11th October.

Following the legacy of being at the top, in our fifth year it will be a battle of the best. Keeping in mind the current international political scenarios, MUNQSMUN 2014 will simulate the following committees:

United Nations Security Council (Double Delegation)

The United Nations Security Council (UNSC) is one of the six principal organs of the United Nations and is charged with the maintenance of international peace and security. Its powers include the establishment of peacekeeping operations, the establishment of international sanctions, and the authorization of military action through Security Council resolutions; it is the only UN body with the authority to issue binding resolutions to member states.

AGENDA: Collective intentions and individual criminal responsibility for internationally wrongful acts with regard to prosecution.

United Nations General Assembly

The United Nations General Assembly is one of the six principal organs of the United Nations and the only one in which all member nations have equal representation.

Its powers are to oversee the budget of the United Nations, appoint the non-permanent members to the Security Council, receive reports from other parts of the United Nations and make recommendations in the form of General Assembly Resolutions. It has also established a wide number of subsidiary organs.

AGENDA: The question of Governance of Non-Self Governing Territories.

United Nations Human Rights Council

The United Nations Human Rights Council (UNHRC) is a United Nations System inter-governmental body whose 47 member states are responsible for promoting and protecting human rights around the world. The UNHRC is the successor to the UN Commission on Human Rights (UNCHR, herein CHR), and is a subsidiary body of the UN General Assembly. The council works closely with the Office of the High Commissioner for Human Rights (OHCHR) and engages the United Nations' special procedures.

AGENDA: Treatment of detainees with special emphasis on prisoners of war.

International Law Commission (Double Delegation)

The International Law Commission was established by the United Nations General Assembly in 1948 for the "promotion of the progressive development of international law and its codification." It holds an annual session at the United Nations Office at Geneva. The work of the Commission is regulated by its statute, which was initially approved by the General Assembly on November 21, 1947 and amended on December 12, 1950, December 3, 1955 and November 18, 1981.

AGENDAS:

- (i) Definition of conflicts with regard to applicability of laws.
- (ii) Applicability of Instant Customs.

United Nations Atomic Energy Commission (Historic)

The United Nations Atomic Energy Commission (UNAEC) was founded on 24 January 1946 by Resolution 1 of the United Nations General Assembly "to deal with the problems raised by the discovery of atomic energy." The General Assembly asked the Commission to "make specific proposals: (a) for extending between all nations the exchange of basic scientific information for peaceful ends; (b) for control of atomic energy to the extent necessary to ensure its use only for peaceful purposes; (c) for the elimination from national armaments of atomic weapons and of all other major weapons adaptable to mass destruction; (d) for effective safeguards by way of inspection and other means to protect complying States against the hazards of violations and evasions."

AGENDA: Discussing the possibility and scope of possession of nuclear weapons and material with special emphasis on the Acheson-Lilienthal & Baruch Plans, 1946.

International Association of Insurance Supervisors

The International Association of Insurance Supervisors (IAIS) is a voluntary membership-driven organization of insurance supervisors and regulators from over 190 jurisdictions in more than 140 countries. In addition to its Members, approximately 135 Observers representing international institutions, professional associations and insurance and reinsurance companies, as well as consultants and other professionals participate in IAIS activities.

AGENDA: Promoting effective and globally consistent supervision of the insurance industry in order to develop and maintain fair, safe and stable insurance markets for the benefit and protection of policyholders.
